June 28, 2010

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(K)night Music in Bayfield

"Summer (Mostly) Thursdays" - a fresh new series of concerts - offers a broad range of music in a variety of settings around Bayfield, performed by musicians from the Chequamegon Bay area and beyond. The series continues on Thursday, July 8, from 5:00-6:15 pm, at Le Chateau Boutin, 7 Rice Avenue, Bayfield, WI with Betty Braunstein (flute) and Sam Black (piano).

Known for their innovative thematic programming and convivial spirit, the duo will present (K)night Music: composers inspired by longing and loyalty. You may hear a lullaby, a nightcap (drinking) song, a dark hymn, or a soliloquy. Katherine Hoover's "Medieval Suite", Rick Sowash's "Sanctuary at 3 a.m.", and Roger Vogel's "Night Songs" will be featured along with selections from Mozart's "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik", Sondheim's "A Little Night Music", and Schickele's "A Little Nightmare Music".

In keeping with tradition, there is no admission charge, but free will offerings are encouraged and gratefully accepted. All offerings go directly to the musicians. A modest reception follows the concert. Please call 715-682-3272 or 715-779-5490 or visit www.bayfieldsummermusic.org for more information about upcoming concerts and opportunities to host or sponsor a "Summer (Mostly) Thursdays" event.
