THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 5:00 PM – BAYFIELD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A Songwriters Round of Meaningful Music

Heidi Howes Heidi Howes has been singing classical and original music in the Northland for many years. Her work has been described as waltzing, spine tingling, deep breathing, high singing, moving, healing, and powerful. Howes is a poignant poet, storyteller, speaker, performer, and teacher and has been compared to Shawn Colvin, Joni Mitchell, and Joan Baez. She is currently working on her second full-length album, Mothersongs.

"James Moors resonates immediately. He writes deeply ... with a wisdom far beyond the norm. A special artist."
Steve Morse, Boston Globe writer

James Moors is often compared to such luminaries as Pierce Pettis, Peter Himmelman and Darden Smith. Young and old find themselves in his plainspoken lyrics that resonate immediately and paint the landscapes we all live in. His album In the Present Moment, with its Midwestern sincerity and humble humor, unveils layers of our common experiences in song to expose the magic that lies beneath them.

"Like the essence of a poem and the heart of a seed, Sara's music is transforming."
Elizabeth Nordell, Storyteller, Duluth, MN

Sara Thomsen is a singer-songwriter with a soulful voice, poetic lyrics, and haunting melodies. Her music comes from the heart, and that's where it takes you. With a voice richer than the best mid-west soil, her songs carry you inward and outward—in, to the particulars of your own life, and out into the shared humanity of us all. Her performance style is easygoing and full of humor and depth. Sara's music gently enfolds and unfolds the listener.
